

Producers of Champions

If you want a professional horse breaking, handling and training service then start with the stud that has produced more top showjumping horses in New Zealand than any other!

BACKGROUND

Located at Longspring Sport Horse Stud just east of Masterton on 500 acres of flat rolling hill country. With over 35 years experience breaking and training young horses.

Owner of stud, Rupert Vallance has a lifelong interest in horses with a family background that has always had an involvement with horses including STURDEE, winner of the Grand National Steeplechase in the 1930s. He worked overseas in Australia, USA and Canada for top stables. He has himself started such top horses as JEEP SUPER MOTH (75 showjumping wins with 45 at Grand Prix Level), Denver, NRM Falcon and Duty Free (Maurice Beatson). Rupert currently competes in showjumping and eventing. Over the years, the stud has exported over 20 horses overseas.

FACILITIES

On site, we have full agistment facilities under cover, a newly built round yard for breaking in and lots of farm tracks for riding out and pacework. Facilities also include a purpose built stable block with 14 boxes, several yards and paddocks to suit even the most discerning of horses.

SERVICES

We provide from a full breaking in service to general handling of youngsters. From yearling preparation to starting jumping under saddle, we have a track record that is widely acknowledged in the equestrian circles.

Full Breaking In - cost will vary depending on work previously done and your requirements but will generally take 4 - 6 weeks. Price range $1000 - $2500 +GST.

General Handling - this will usually take 2 weeks and will focus on manners, leading, shoeing, drenching and loading into float. Cost around $500 + GST. Food and veterinary care additional.

Longspring prides its self in the ability to provide a professional and tailored service and we look forward to working with you in the future. Below lungeing a young horse.
